Saba plays the Classics at Stanley Park

77 Fullerton Cove Road Fullerton Cove

Saturday 26 August 2017

The Opera & Arts Support Group have pleasure in inviting you and friends to join us for a day coach trip which will include a spectacular Recital by internationally acclaimed pianist Geoffrey Saba in the historic and majestic Stanley Park estate at Fullerton Cove, performing an engrossing programme of masterworks by Haydn and Beethoven.

7.30am The Central Railway Coach Terminal has moved to the Grand Concourse. Board our luxury coach at Central Railway Exit 1 Grand Concourse – Western Forecourt Bay 1 – outside entrance to country trains.

8.15am Pick up Railway Street, Chatswood at Bus Interchange Chatswood Station.

9.15am Pick up at Berowra – bus stop opposite Railway Station.

10.45am Arrive at the historic town of Morpeth nestled on the Hunter River with time to stroll and experience the many enticing and unique shopping boutiques or visit a garden to be arranged. Morpeth has a rich heritage and was instrumental in the development of the Hunter Valley, is National Trust classified – a living museum with beautifully preserved buildings.

11.45am Assemble at the Commercial Hotel, Morpeth to enjoy a glass of bubbly followed by lunch with selected wines.

1.00pm Depart Morpeth for Stanley Park estate at Fullerton Cove where we have been invited to a Recital by celebrated pianist Geoffrey Saba.

1.30pm Champagne reception followed by an afternoon of music by Haydn and Beethoven (full programme overleaf).

A grand waterfront estate, Stanley Park c1897 is a landmark residence unparalleled in grace, style and historic legend. The majestic 8 bedroom homestead is embraced by 28 acres of rolling park-like grounds and uninterrupted water views. Friends who travelled with us last year will remember the sumptuous afternoon tea we were treated to after the Recital.

5.00pm Carriages – board our coach for a relaxed journey home.

Cost $120 per person all inclusive.

Please advise if you require vegetarian. A list of guests will be held at the door. We regret that we are unable to offer refunds.
